

Drive More Timely Payments

By contacting your customers timely and systematically, following "Best Practices" of alternating the medium of the messages, a company will collect more of their accounts receivable quicker.

Resulting in:

- Increased working capital.
- Reduced need for receivable financing.
- Reduced payroll.

Why is this so important? The longer an account remains unpaid, the lower the probability of collection. Age of Receivables Becomes Uncollectible

3 months delinquent

27%

6 months delinquent

43%

12 months delinquent

75% Source: Commercial Collection Agency Section of the Commercial Law League of America